

Art Exhibit at the National Wetlands Research Center

March 28 - April 1, 2011

Our Story Through Art Is Our Strength

Artist Information Sheet

The U.S. Geological Survey (USGS) National Wetlands Research Center (NWRC) welcomes you to our 2011 Women's History Month celebration. We are honored that you are allowing us to showcase your art.

The exhibit will be open to the public from 8:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., Monday, March 28, through Friday, April 1. An opening reception will be held Monday, March 28, from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Setup is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25, at NWRC. Pieces will be accepted as early as Tuesday, March 22; however, all pieces must be delivered no later than 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 23. You may pick up your piece beginning at 7:30 a.m. Monday, April 4; all pieces must be picked up no later than 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 5.

We are trying to accommodate as many artists as possible. Because of space limitations, we ask that each artist submit no more than one piece.

Tables will be available in the NWRC main conference room for three-dimensional pieces; there may be multiple displays per table. Wall art will be hung down the main corridor and in the main conference room. A minimal number of easels will be available. Please bring any display materials (e.g., pedestals, stands, easels) you normally use for these types of events.

Your name and the title of the piece will be displayed along with your art. A table will be available for your business cards, brochures, and price lists. No sales may take place on the premises.

NWRC reserves the right to refuse any piece for display, in accordance with Federal government ethics guidelines.

Security will be provided by NWRC for the duration of the exhibit.
